

Impact Assessment Tools Master Class

Date: Monday March 8th 2010

Time: 9.30 – 4.00 pm

Venue: Cumbria Wildlife Trust, Crook Road, Kendal LA8 8LX

Trainer: Liz Brooks- Allen is a qualified and experienced social accountant and auditor with excellent knowledge and proven practise in the field of social impact reporting. Liz is a strong proponent of corporate social responsibility encouraging clients to find effective ways to tell the story of their organisations and measure their social impact. She is an experienced trainer having has delivered social impact measurement awareness sessions to many groups representing the public, private and social sectors. Liz's reputation for creating social enterprise activity that delivers change in communities, for linking social enterprises to the delivery of public sector contracts, for managing such activity and for delivering highly effective social impact measurement has earned her respect from the public and voluntary sector.

Delegate places are fully funded by the Office if the Third Sector, but hurry places are limited.

For more details and to book a place visit www.senw.org.uk

Organised by secod
social enterprise & co-operative development

On behalf of the Cumbria
Social Enterprise Partnership

Project Part-Financed
by the European Union European Regional Development Fund

